Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to/collect information that you voluntarily give us via email or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone.

We will use your information to respond to you, regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization, other than as necessary to fulfill your request, e.g. to make a donation (CanadaHelps), to apply to volunteer (Calgary Police Service).

If you give us permission, we may contact you via email in the future to tell you about program updates and highlights, special events, or other news we think is relevant to our mission.

Donations

We request information from you on our donation form. To donate to us online, you must provide contact information (like name and billing address) and financial information (like credit card number, expiration date). This information is used for donation processing and recording. If we have trouble processing a donation, we'll use this information to contact you.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way (via CanadaHelps). You can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon at the bottom or top of your web browser, or looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the donation page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, processing a donation) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.
